

SASKATOON BAHÁ'Í
COMMUNITY

LIGHT OF UNITY FESTIVAL

Sunday, October 22, 2017
Grand Salon, TCU Place

Come celebrate with the Saskatoon Bahá'í Community in a joyful program of music, dance and spiritual reflection on unity in diversity. We are marking the 200th Anniversary of the birth of Bahá'u'lláh, the Founder of the Bahá'í Faith. His extensive writings gave a unifying vision for humanity and honoured the founders of other religions. In this spirit of interfaith understanding we welcome people of all faiths.

Program Schedule:

1:00 p.m. - Doors Open -Displays, Music, Syrian Dance

2:00 p.m. - Formal Program

Welcome

Mayor's Welcome

Prayers in Cree, English and a Persian chant

The Royal Falcon - Farideh

Spiritual Revolutionary - Tallis and Jome Newkirk

All One People - Joseph Naytowhow

Light of Unity – Marion Graham School Choir

Abondance et Harmonie – Malika Sellami

Spiritual reflection on Bahá'u'lláh's life and teachings

2:40 p.m. - Reception

3:15 p.m. - Light to the World - premiere showing of a just released film about Bahá'u'lláh and how His teachings are being applied with transformative impact on individuals and communities worldwide.

There will be a children's program offered during the 51 minute film.

The festival is open to all and there is no charge for admission.

Come for all or part of the afternoon.